Christmas Week

Sun 12/23 Christmas Pageant

No doubt you will see more than one Christmas Pageant this year, but don't let that make you think they're all the same. There're not! This one is super special. Written by Amanda Keane-Stack and performed by the children of the SRC Sunday School this is one pageant that will make you want more!

Happens during Worship @ 11:00 AM!

Christmas Eve - Monday!

Christmas Eve is on Monday this year...

9:00 PM Candlelight Service with Communion, special guest musicians, storytelling for children, and a gorgeously decorated sanctuary. There will be bigger services on Christmas Eve, but none more beautiful or more spiritual.

Christmas Morning

Tuesday 12/25 @ 11 AM

"The Service of the Nine Lessons"

We know that all of you will be anxious to get those presents opened - and see if Santa ate the cookies you left for him - but - if all the presents were opened on Christmas Eve and you want to do something spiritual, come and spend the morning with us. It's a low-key but very uplifting service that reminds us all that this is about Life - the Life we'll be called to lead every single day...

After Christmas...

This is where the rubber meets the road. What do you do when Christmas is over? New Years Eve - no matter how great the parties were - is quickly over and plenty of us are left with a feeling of unfinished business. Think about coming to church. If you haven't been for awhile...don't worry. If you've never been...join the club. If you've had bad experiences at other churches or religious organizations...give us a chance to make it up to you. Come and see what you think. Meet our members, spend some time, relax, let the craziness go for awhile. You might meet someone called Messiah...you will never be the same again...
